

An aerial photograph of the Luttrellstown Castle Resort, featuring a large, multi-story stone building with a dark roof, surrounded by lush green golf courses and dense forests. The image is framed by a series of concentric, dark blue circles that create a tunnel-like effect, drawing the eye towards the center of the resort. The sky is clear and blue, and the overall scene is bright and vibrant.

ESCAPE FROM THE WORLD, ON A WORLD-CLASS COURSE.

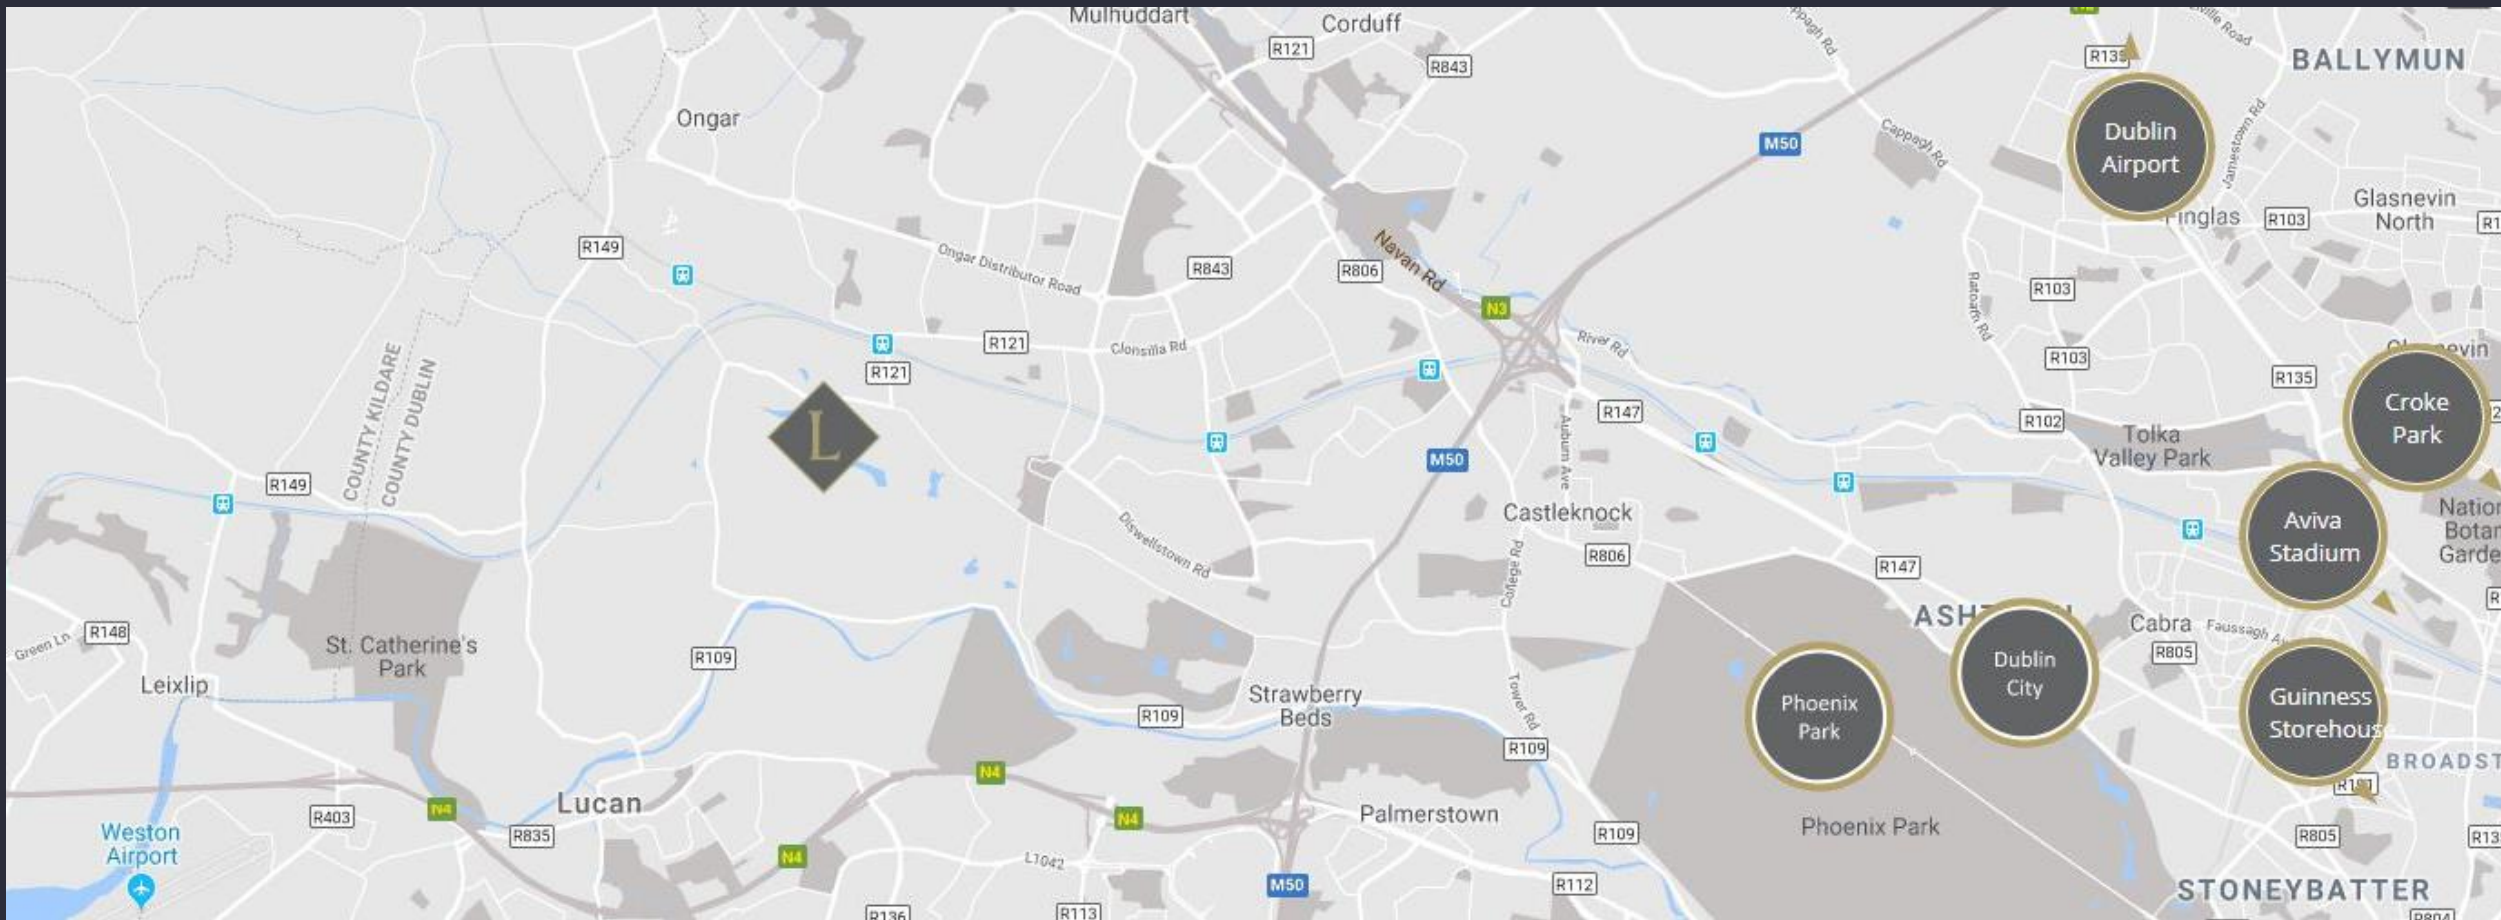

THE GOLF COURSE AT LUTTRELLSTOWN CASTLE RESORT

An Introduction

Set within the walls of a centuries-old private estate and masterfully designed down to the last detail by celebrated course architects Donald Steel and Tom MacKenzie, this is 7,347 naturally-contoured yards of championship golf, befitting a country in the top tier of global golfing destinations.

An aerial photograph of a golf course, featuring a large, winding pond in the foreground and middle ground. The course is surrounded by dense trees and a clubhouse is visible in the background. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark layer to make the text stand out.

“While I’ve been our dedicated Director of Golf since 2018, I’ve been a passionate golfer since I could walk. In between these milestones, I’ve been in charge of a number of leading courses across Ireland for the last 20 years.

As our resident PGA club professional, I oversee the highly-skilled team responsible for maintaining our majestic 567-acre championship golf course and all the incredible facilities associated with it.”
